

IT Internship in Sydney!

Young and dynamic company specialized in developing and delivering passionate and professional Face-to-Face fundraising campaigns on behalf of leading Not-For-Profits such as “Cancer Council, Child Fund, Save the Children” and many more.

Our company values are Fairness, Integrity, efficiency, charity and family. We are committed to doing great work and share a mutual commitment to growth, development and continuous improvement. We focus on training and developing our staff whilst promoting a work culture that is both hard working and flexible.

We strive to provide our employees with a friendly and enjoyable environment where people share ideas and reach their potentials. This internship is designed to increase your knowledge and build on your skills and competences..

Tasks:

Participates in the software product development life cycle

- Feasibility analysis
- Project estimating
  - Design
- Software development/coding
  - Software testing
  - Documentation
- Keeps abreast of new developments in the IT field

Provides support for all software/service applications offered by the department

- Assisting first level support
- Responding to and resolving customer inquiries as needed

Adheres to programming standards that have been established for new development and maintenance

- Keeps abreast of new developments in the IT field

Teamwork

- Work proactively with other team members
- Prioritize activities for the best interest of the team when working on joint projects
- Handle IT requests and deliver quality solutions if able, or escalate the request to a more senior team member
- Openly share new ideas and information with other team members

Client profile:

Necessary:

- Familiar with Windows system and IOS
- Knowledge of Data structures and algorithms

- Basic knowledge of HTML, Javascript, JQuery, CSS, Java preferable, C#, C++.
  - Good computer problem solving skills
- Familiar with embedded programming (8 bit, 16 bit or 32 bit processors) and debugging

Desirable:

- Knowledge of the Not-For-Profit sector

The ideal candidate will demonstrate:

- Self-motivated character with a "get the job done" mentality
  - Ability to meet deadlines
  - Ability to work effectively under pressure
- Willingness and ability to learn and gain new skills through training and personal development

Start Date: ASAP

Duration: 12 weeks

Location: Sydney, Australia

