

Junior Post Production Assistant Internship in Sydney!

Boutique production company started in 2011, which create and produce innovative concepts for national and international audiences. Originality is the emphasis to our philosophy, making sure that our content translates to the right audience every time. This is an award winning company whose previous projects, like the TV series My Family Feast, that they created and produced for SBS, sold to 23 different territories.

Tasks:

- Cut and Edit footage as directed
- Use after effects to enhance a job
- Help around the office, grade stills
- Assist with set on larger jobs

Client profile:

- Media related degree

Start Date: ASAP

Duration: 16 weeks

Location: Sydney, Australia

